

When I trade I am not so much concerned about the price or dates, but the shape of the prediction. The red line represents where I believe I am in the prediction. Everything to the left of the red line is in the past. The Orange dot represents where I think we are. For this trade I am shorting to $1.13080, may take profit at $1.13235 if trade starts to stall. Stoploss at $1.14720.

Entry: $1.13860

Stop Loss: $1.14720

Take Profit: $1.13235 - $1.13080
